

Tales of the CRPS is hosting the 1st Annual Dog Walk – TAILS of the CRPS

May 14, 2016
10:00am – 12:00pm
Registration: 10$ at First Giving

Registration includes a goodie bag with dog treats, info and puzzles to enter in the contest

The Tales of the CRPS is hosting the 1st annual dog walk – the TAILS of the CRPS.

This will be a morning of fun with our dogs at Ed Austin Regional Park:

11751 McCormick Road - Jacksonville, Fl 32225

Walk for a cause; bring your paws! No dog? No Problem! - Bring a yo-yo to 'walk the dog'. Walk with a stuffed dog. Or even grab an invisible dog!

Schedule:

Onsite registration: 10:00

Walk begins: 10:30

Contests and prizes: 11:00

Dog with the longest TAIL

Dog with the most TAIL wags in 1 minute

Puzzle Solver

Event ends: 12:00

(Puzzles provided in the registration packet. Turn the solved puzzle in at the Tales of the CRPS table by 11:00 to enter the contest)

This event is to raise awareness and funds for the Reflex Sympathetic Dystrophy Syndrome Association. This condition is also known as Complex Regional Pain Syndrome (CRPS). For more information on this condition and association visit their website at: www.rsd.org. Many thanks to our main sponsor Brooks Rehabilitation for help with registration supplies! Including the sporty dog bandana!

